BRAZOS COUNTY FARMERS INSTITUTE

MEETING SATURDAY, FEB. 28—NEXT MEETING TO BE MARCH 26.

Prominent Speakers Invited, and Large Attendance is Desired.

The Brazos County Farmers' Institute held a regular meeting at the court house in Bryan last Saturday at 2 p. m., with a small attendance, owing to the bad weather. President J. H. White occupied the chair, W. P. Connelly acting as secretary pro tem.

... ..

To Preserve the Birds.

Prof. J. H. Allen asked leave to make a statement in behalf of the association recently organized in Bryan, to protect the birds from slaughter. Prof. Allen was requested to proceed with his statement, and stated that the association hoped for the co-operation of the farmers' institute and the citizens of Brazos county in general, to enforce the laws against the slaughter of birds. The discussion of the matter brought out the fact that every member of the institute present felt deeply and strongly the importance of this move. Prof. Allen's suggestion was that an organization be effected throughout the county to assist the officers in enforcing the game laws. A motion that the farmers' institute endorse this movement prevailed by unanimous vote.

Books for Carnegie Library.

Prof. Robt. F. Smith, for the committee on representation of the Institute in the Carnegie library, reported that he had interviewed those members of the Carnegie library board having authority in the matter. The result was that about $125 to $150 will be set aside for the purchase of books pertaining to agriculture, to be incorporated in said library.

T. R. Batte moved that a vote of thanks be tendered, and that a committee of be appointed by the chair to assist in the selection of such books. The motion prevailed, and Prof. Robt. F. Smith, T. R. Batte, McDuff Simpson and W. P. Connelly were appointed.

Alfalfa.

The regular program work was taken up by calling upon Mr. A. F. Wilson for a talk on Alfalfa, which elicited great interest. Mr. Wilson has had about twelve years experience, and says if he had had proper information about growing it when he first began, instead of having to learn by his own experience, he would have made many a dollar out of growing alfalfa that he did not make. He was told to sow it along with some other crop, as oats, but he has found that this was a big mistake. He tried to manage for years without a barn, but finds now that alfalfa cannot be stored and preserved that way. Alfalfa hay must have a good barn with floor to preserve it right. It will not do to put it on a dirt floor. He sows in the fall, 30 pounds of seed to the acre. Prepares the land well and harrows in the seed, and rolls the ground. Uses a machine roller. He has 70 acres in alfalfa, and last year sold $2500 worth of hay from it, besides keeping forty mules, five or six cows, and 75 or 100 head of hogs, almost entirely fed on alfalfa. He could hardly estimate what portion of the crop was sold—a rough guess would be half of it. On this basis, seventy acres of alfalfa yielded him last year about $5,000. Mr. Wilson regards alfalfa without an equal as a feed for horses, cattle and hogs. It is almost a whole feed for hogs. He told his experience with hogs, which showed that hogs turned on it to graze, will make good growth and will fatten on it, needing but little "finishing" with grain. In fact, he cited the case of a car load of hogs sold from the Anderson farm, that had never had any feed but alfalfa, and were sold for a good price, and averaged 245 pounds weight at one year old. Mr. Wilson has 20 acres of alfalfa in a pasture, and keeps it for grazing entirely. He keeps his mules, cows and about 100 head of hogs on it, and last year with all this, it got so rank that he had to cut it in August.

Mr. Wilson's farm is in the rich Brazos bottom lands. Asked if he thought alfalfa would do well on the upland in this section, he said it would if the lands were made rich. He begins cutting his hay crop in May and cuts five or six times. He says he believes that alfalfa can be made to kill out Johnson grass, on account of the frequent cutting keeping the grass down. He says it is a fine fertilizer.

Next Meeting March 26.

After considerable discussion it was agreed that it would be best to make the next meeting March 26th, at the courthouse in Bryan, at 2 p. m. Assurance was given that lecturers from abroad could be procured for that meeting, and on motion, the president of the State Farmers' institute was requested to send Messrs. Atwater and Bonner, or other speakers if these could not be procured. There is every assurance that these speakers will be on hand at that date, and positive announcement of this will doubtless be made later.

A motion prevailed that the institute adjourn to meet at Bryan, March 26, when it is hoped a big meeting will be held. An invitation has been received to hold a county institute meeting at Kurten, and it was the sense of this meeting that the invitation be accepted, and a meeting be held at Kurten at an early day.

TO ZOROASTERISM.

First Record of a Christian Embracing the Parsee Doctrine.

New York, March 5.—The first recorded conversion from Christianity to Zoroasterianism took place at Bombay on Feb. 8, according to a dispatch from London. Mrs. Tatta, a French lady, on that date was formally invested with the sacred thread and the "sudra" of the Parsees. Mrs. Tatta afterwards went through the Parsee marriage ceremony. Her husband is a nephew of a well known merchant prince and philanthropist at Bombay.

Supposed Reference to Smoot.

Washington, March 5.—When the senate met in special session Mr. Hoar obtained unanimous consent to make a statement for Chairman Burrows of the committee on privileges and elections. Mr. Hoar's statement that any man having credentials could be re-born in is supposed to have referred to Mr. Smoot of Utah, although no name was mentioned.

Crum to Be Nominated Again.

Washington, March 5.—The president will send to the senate the nomination of W. D. Crum, colored, to be collector of the port of Charleston, S. C.

This will be the second nomination of Crum to the senate, as the session just closed, failed to confirm him.

Six Cities Voted for License.

White River Junction, Vt., March 5.—Of the 246 cities and towns in Vermont which Tuesday voted on the license question, all but twelve have reported, indicating that eighty-seven, including all six cities, went for license, while 147 clung to prohibition. Some of the majorities ranged from one to six either for or against liquor.

In Memory of Generals.

Raleigh, N. C., March 5.—Governor Aycock has written to the secretary of war recommending monuments to the revolutionary generals, Nash and Davidson, of North Carolina, to be located at Guilford battle ground, near Greenboro. Congress recently appropriated $10,000 for monuments for those officers.

The fifty-seventh congress has adjourned.

Gonzales has voted a bond issue of $15,000 for street and fire improvements.

The house voted down the constitutional convention resolution by a big majority. The vote was based on the belief that the people do not want it.

Trains on the H. & T. C. between Hempstead and Chappell Hill have been tied up on account of high water. The flood on the lower Brazos has been more annoying than it was in this locality.

Half sick and half busted, dog tired and disgusted, we of Red river are sore on the mud; mired up to the collar, soaked through to the hollow—we are mad as the mischief and thirsty for blood.—Clarksville Times.

The Beaumont city council refused the I. & G. N. the use of a certain street to get into the city. A railroad representative gave notice that the road would not go there at all if it could not get that street. The situation is interesting.

The boll weevil convention committee has distributed 90,000 copies of the pamphlet, "Kill the Boll Weevil," and is now after non-infected quick maturing seed from North Carolina. The number of weevils killed as a result of the advice given is not available, but will probably not equal the number of pamphlets distributed.

A number of Brazos bottom farmers are turning their attention to the growing of alfalfa. It is claimed that the Brazos Valley soil is capable of a high production of this hay and as it brings a good price and always finds ready sale, it is a surer crop than cotton even under ordinary conditions, more especially so with the advent of the boll weevil. Four cuttings a year are taken from a meadow of alfalfa and about four tons to the acre is an average yield.—Marlin Democrat.

The mud has Milam county in its grasp. A Cameron special says: "The muddy roads have tested the wits of parties living in the worst places, and necessity has caused many devices. At first a larger number of teams were hitched to the vehicles, but later the hind wheels were removed. The mud got too deep for fore wheels and hind ones were substituted. Some have sleds, and some ride one horse and lead another. Sometimes two with packs on their backs. The people would like to have an air ship now to get around with."

BLOODY BATTLE.

Members of Two Families Have a Singular Encounter.

Guntersville, Ala., March 5.—A telephone message from Grant, a small hamlet, seven miles from this place, gives the details of a bloody fight which occurred near that place between the Taylor boys and the Barkleys.

As a result, Tom Barkley is dead and three others are injured. The Barkley boys, Joe and Tom, were moving their household effects, when the Taylors began geying them about moving the cat. The Barkleys got mad and the fight began. Seizing a heavy stock, Tom Barkley knocked down two of his tormentors, and made for the remaining one. This one pulled a pistol and began firing, shooting Tom Barkley through the arm. At the conclusion of the battle Tom Barkley was lying in the dust with his skull crushed, a pistol ball through his arm and many knife wounds in his body. He lived only a short time. The remainder of the party were covered with wounds and severely injured.

TERRIBLE FIGHT.

Negro Is Dead and a Constable Is in a Dying Condition.

Nashville, Tenn., March 5.—Two deputy sheriffs and a constable had a desperate battle Wednesday with Josh Farmer, a negro, as a result of which the negro is dead and Constable W. B. Eason is in the city hospital in a dying condition. The negro was wanted on a charge on assaulting a negro woman with intent to kill and recently had successfully resisted arrest, beating an officer over the head with a pistol. Wednesday the officers located Farmer in a house on Cartwright street in the west end and upon their approach the negro opened fire. A fusillade followed, during which Eason was shot four times through the bowels. The negro finally ceased firing and the officers found on investigation that he was shot ten times. He died Wednesday night.

To Quarantine.

Laredo, Tex., March 5.—Dr. J. H. McKnight, state quarantine officer, has received instructions to raise the quarantine against Torreon, as a thorough investigation by experts of the suspicious cases of bubonic plague said to exist there has resulted in that there is no case of plague in Torreon. The state and national health officials state that a prompt quarantine was established because the first news received by them emanated from the experts in Mexico.

Builders' Exchange Wins.

Dallas, March 5.—A decision in favor of the Builders' Exchange was rendered Wednesday by Judge Thomas F. Nash of the Fourteenth district court in the injunction proceedings instituted against the organization by the Building Trades Council. The restraining order was denied.

Not to Be Released.

Washington, March 5.—The Associated Press is authorized by the British embassy at Washington to state that there is no foundation for the reports that Mrs. Maybrick's release is contemplated by the British authorities; that there has been no recent occurrence of the subject between Washington and London or representations whatsoever to the state department and that none is contemplated.

Caused by an Open Switch.

Jacksonville, Fla., March 5.—The northbound Seaboard limited, leaving Jacksonville at 1:10 p. m., was wrecked Wednesday afternoon at Evergreen, two miles south of the Georgia line, fatally injuring Engineer Pierce and his colored fireman, and seriously injuring six other members of the crew, one of whom will probably die, and injuring one Pullman passenger.

Gale Did Great Damage.

Paris, March 5.—A gale which blew with terrific force and which was accompanied by exceedingly heavy rain and hail struck the French coast and did great damage. At Brest, Bordeaux, Larochele and elsewhere roofs were blown off and telegraph communication was interrupted. A large unknown vessel foundered off Larochele.

Caused No Panic.

Colima, Mex., March 5.—There was eruption of the volcano which in reality was slight. No ashes fell in this city and the principal damage done was the burning of some brush by the lava. As regards this city reports have been unduly exaggerated.

February Failures.

New York, March 5.—R. G. Dunn & Co. report 1030 commercial failures during February with liabilities of $10,907,454 compared with 1104 in corresponding month 1902, when amount involved $11,302 and 1024 in 1901, with liabilities $11,287,211.

Sails in April.

San Francisco, March 5.—The army transport Sheridan will leave for Manila April 1. She will take 816 men of the Eighteenth infantry, 216 of the Thirtieth cavalry and about 40 recruits and casuals. She is to take a number of marines, but reservation of space for them has been cancelled.

Ashes Are Falling.

Morelia, Mex., March 5.—Ashes are falling in Uruapan, in the coffee country, supposed to have come from the volcano of Colima. There is no alarm.

MAY HAVE TO DEPART

Status of Religious Orders Is Being Examined Into.

STATUS OF MATTERS.

If a Strict Construction of the Law Is Had Several Hundred Persons Would Be Forced to Depart From France.

Rome, March 5.—Very Rev. John Zahn of the provincial congregation of the Holy Cross at Notre Dame, Ind., has left here for the French capital.
Father Zahn has been negotiating with French and Vatican authorities on the subject of members of religious orders remaining in France. It is asserted if the laws are strictly applied about 200,000 persons, belonging to fifty-three different communities, will eventually be expatriated. Father Zahn goes to Paris to make provision for those who belong to his order in France, numbering altogether about 400 brothers and 600 sisters. It is proposed to transfer them to the various colleges and parishes in the United States and Canada. The sisters already have moved the mother house to New York and appointed the American mother superior at the request of the mother superior here. Father Zahn also arranged for transportation of nearly 100 other French sisters to western and southern states.

POPE'S CONDITION.

It Is Due to Overwork and Too Much Excitement.

Rome, March 5.—The pope's physical prostration is due to overwork and overexcitement which, however, leave his mental faculties perfectly clear.
wonderfully so, indeed. Therefore, Dr.
Lapponi thinks a few days' rest will restore the pope to his usual condition.
The physician also says suspension of audiences induce numerous pilgrims and notable persons who are now in Rome to abandon further fatigue, which might place him in serious danger.

Found Pope No Worse.

Rome, March 5.—Dr. Lapponi visited the pope and found him no worse with regard to symptoms of any special illness. The physicians have for-bidden anyone to see the pontiff, except the latter's nephew, Count Camillo Pecci, who entered the pope's room as
Dr. Lapponi left it.

DOZEN HURT.

Three Cars Were Derailed and a Coach Demolished.

Kansas City, March 5.—More than a dozen persons were injured, three cars were derailed and one coach was demolished in the Kansas City yards of the Union Pacific, when a westbound Rock Island train ran diagonally with an eastbound Rock Island train, which was late and trying to make a siding. The locomotive and the baggage cars of the eastbound train were on the sidetrack when the westbound passenger train reached the switch, and crashed into the smoking-car as it was passing from the main track to the sidetrack. All the injured persons were in the smoking car, which was turned over and crushed.

Monument to the French.

Newport, R. I., March 5.—The Newport city council appropriated $500 toward a fund for the erection of a monument in Harbor park here, to the memory of Admiral de Ternay and other French officers who came to this country in the course of the war of the revolution in support of the colonists. The monument, which was designed by Philip Martini of New York, is to be placed in the park at the south end of the harbor, where French troops first landed on the arrival at Newport.

Chattanooga to Be Launched.

Elizabeth, N. J., March 5.—About 300 invitations have been sent out for the launching of the cruiser Chattanooga, which will take place here next Saturday. Mrs. Nellie Chambliss, daughter of the mayor of Chattanooga, will christen the vessel. The Chattanooga is nearly 300 feet long, and it is feared some difficulty will be experienced in launching her because of the narrowness of the channel.

Articles Must Be Signed.

Helena, Mont., March 5.—The lower house of the legislature passed a bill providing each newspaper shall once a month print on its first page a statement setting forth the ownership of the paper and that editorials shall be signed by editor or writer of articles.
Bill was introduced by John MacGlinnis, vice president of Montana Ore Purchasing company.

Terrible Deeds.

Columbus, Miss., March 5.—At Cordova, Ala., near here, there was a terrible tragedy. A negro entered the home of a white man and awoke the inmates. In the fight the white man was killed. The negro then killed the wife and a little child. He escaped.

To Consider Treaties.

Washington, March 5.—The president sent to the senate his reasons for calling the extraordinary session.
It was to consider treaties, particularly the one about the Panama canal.
New senators were sworn in.

Excitement in Cotton.

New Orleans, March 5.—Cotton fu-

HENDERSON HONORED

He Is Extended Thanks, but Not by Unanimous Vote.

IS SOME OPPOSITION.

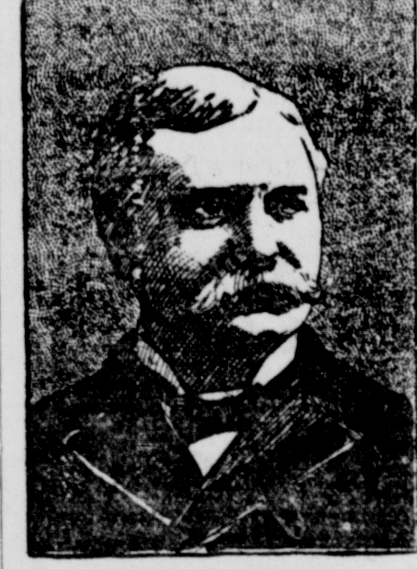

Flags Are Waved and Other Demonstrations Made by Republican Members of the House and Gallery Occupants.

Washington, March 5.—As soon as the speaker's gavel fell Wednesday in the house he announced blandly that no quorum was present and thereupon Mr. Payne, the majority leader moved a call on the house.

As the roll call was concluded a remarkable scene occurred. Speaker Henderson yielded the gavel to Mr. Cannon, the incoming speaker, and as the latter took the chair the members broke into a burst of applause in which the galleries joined. It was quite as much a compliment to the retiring speaker as to Mr. Cannon. The speaker retired to his room and Mr. Cannon then announced the motion for call of the house, defeated—17-134.

Amid intense silence Mr. Payne, the majority leader then arose and offered the following resolution of thanks to the retiring speaker:

Resolved, That the thanks of this house are presented to the Hon. David B. Henderson, speaker of the house of representatives for the able, impartial and dignified manner in which he has presided over its deliberations and performed the arduous and important duties of the chair during the present

As the reading was concluded Mr. Cochrane (Mo.) Democrat, was on his feet demanding recognition, but the chair ruled that Mr. Payne was entitled to the floor. The majority leader faced the minority and announced that he considered it a high honor to be permitted to offer this resolution pointing out that it was not the first time that such a resolution had come from the majority side. He cited the instances of Clay, Polk, Banks and the late Speaker Reed. As he concluded with a glowing tribute to Speaker Henderson, the whole Republican side broke into hearty applause. But there was a dead silence on the Democratic side.

When Mr. Payne demanded the previous question and speaker pro tem Cannon put the question there was a second of oppressive silence. All eyes were on the Democratic side. From the rear row Mr. Cochrane (Dem. Mo.) arose quickly and in a loud voice cried: "Division!" and then the "ayes and noes." From the Republican side came the syllablist sound like a hiss.

The gentleman from Missouri demands the ayes and noes, announced the chair. "As many as are in favor of ordering the ayes and noes will rise and stand until counted.

Mr. Cochrane was already on his feet. Mr. Burleson (Dem. Tex.) at his side, joined him, and with some seeming hesitation a score of other Democrats also arose to their feet. Mr. Richardson, Mr. Underwood, Mr. Williams (Miss.); Mr. Dearwood and other prominent men on the minority side remained seated.

The sound on the Republican side now became distinctly a hiss, and from the galleries also came similar signs of disapproval. In all only twenty-one Democrats arose. The chair counted and still amid intense silence announced that twenty-one had seconded the demand.

"Forty-two are necessary to order the ayes and noes," he announced, "not a sufficient number and the ayes and noes are refused."

Mr. Payne's resolution prevailed. Mr. Payne thanked the members for the compliment. A forest of United States flags were waved and the members sang "America." galleries joining. House was declared adjourned.

Then the demonstration of applause was renewed. In the midst of it Mr. Kyle, O., in a sweet tenor voice began singing "Sweet Land of Liberty."

The house took it up as the members surged forward to bid the speaker farewell.

He had descended from the rostrum, and standing at the door as they filed by gave each one some pleasant word and a cordial shake of the hand.

A dozen Republican members gathered on the marble steps behind him and the song changed to "For He's a Jolly Good Fellow," and later to "God Be With You Till We Meet Again."

This hymn so touched the speaker that he turned to Mr. Tawney, Minn., when the procession was still passing and asked him to write out the words and send them to him.

Before all the members had passed the visitors from the galleries began surging on the floor and also eager to grasp his hand. For over half an hour the reception was continued and finally broke up with the singing of the "Doxology." Many ladies had thrust bouquets of flowers into his hands and when ex-Speaker Henderson finally retired to his room his arms were filled with violets, roses and other choice flowers.

FEARFUL WRECK.

Engine Turned Completely Over and the Coach Lodged on Top.

Columbus, Tex., March 5.—A terrible wreck occurred on the Southern Pacific Wednesday evening five miles from this place. As westbound passenger train No. 7 was coming around the curve on the McLeod place the engine, tender, baggage and mail cars and two passenger coaches left the track, resulting in the killing of two colored passengers and the serious injuring of ten or twelve more, and injuring of Engineer Ben Pickren and the serious if not fatal injuring of Fireman Frank Roberts. The killed are Tip Woods and Flemons Cooper.

The catastrophe occurred upon a dump about ten feet high, thrown up for the purpose of elevating the track above overthrows, and the supposed cause is the spreading of the rails.

The engine completely turned over. The baggage car passed over the engine into the ditch, and the colored coach lodged on top of the engine, with the smoking car next to it. As the colored coach fell upon the engine, the bottom was completely knocked out of the forward end and it immediately filled with hot steam, completely blinding the passengers and burning and scalding several of them almost beyond recognition. Two fell through upon the hot engine and were almost instantly burned to death.

WAS A MURDERER.

Knapp Says Last Dead Wife Smothered Her Baby to Death.

Hamilton, O., March 5.—The reason the making of all of his confessions was given by Knapp to his sister, Mrs. Sadie Wenzel. The prisoner harbors ill will against his sister, Mary King, and her husband, and does not attempt to conceal it.

Fourth wife of Knapp, Annie Gamble of Indianapolis, arrived at the jail. In company with the deputy sheriff and jailer she was admitted into the presence of Knapp. She cried bitterly. She asked Knapp if his confession of the horrible murders were true and he answered that it was.

Knapp accuses his last dead wife, Hannah Goddard Knapp of murder. "The woman I killed," he said, "was no better than I am. She committed murder and I know it because she told me so. In Cincinnati in May, 1894, she smothered her own baby to death and said it was an accident. Her word was never questioned and she was never suspected of the murder. Hannah told me all about it."

HOUSE OPPOSED.

Sat Down on Proposition for a Constitutional Amendment.

Austin, March 5.—The report of the free conference committee on the deficiency appropriation bill was read and adopted by the house.

The speaker laid before the house as unfinished business the bill providing for a convention to frame a constitution for the state of Texas.

Mr. Harris advocated the passage of the resolution. He said that changes and growth of the state require a new constitution every twenty years or so.

Mr. Smith opposed it.

"The old constitution is like the oldtime religion," declared Mr. Connally, "it was good enough for Paul and Silas, and it is good enough for me."

The measure was defeated 71 to 53.

In the senate omnibus validating bill was postponed one week.

Concurrent resolution taking state lands temporarily off the market passed.

REMAINS AT DALLAS.

Secretary of Odd Fellows Will Not Remove His Office.

Dallas, March 5.—At the session of the grand lodge of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows held at the city hall it was decided that the office of the grand secretary would not be moved from Dallas to Corsicana. Corsicana was the chief bidder for the change, and stood ready to donate a lot upon which to erect a suitable building, but her claim soon proved unpopular, and it was decided that the grand secretary's office should remain in Dallas for at least one year more.

The Porter trophy for the best drilled team of Rebekahs was awarded Corsicana.

BLACKS FIGHT.

Twelve of Them Are Reported to Have Been Killed.

Jacksonville, Tex., March 5.—Assistant Engineer G. W. Bosche of the Southern Pacific railway system, in charge of the construction of Dallas division of Texas and New Orleans railroad, says some of the negroes employed by the company got into a crap game and a difficulty ensued. Seven were killed. Another fight happened and there were five more victims. The camp is twenty-two miles southeast of this place in Nacogdoches county.

Denise of Dr. Zaldivar.

Paris, March 5.—Dr. Rafael Zaldivar, formerly president of Salvador and late minister of that republic at Washington died here.
